

Cambridge, Massachusetts

Cambridge is located across the Charles River from Boston. It has a diverse population of over 100,000 residents.

Cambridge is known as one of the leading intellectual hubs of the U.S., attracting college students from all over the world to study at Harvard, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Lesley University.

Cambridge attracted a great number of technology-based enterprises like software and biotechnology.

Kendall Square is a Cambridge area, a neighborhood in Cambridge that has been dubbed "the most innovative square mile on the planet."

The Cambridge Innovation Center (CIC) has large corporate offices in the Kendall Square area. (1 Broadway, Cambridge, MA 02142).

Students of MIT, Harvard and Lesley University are interested in finding the following types of places:

- Places to eat, do laundry, art galleries etc
- Potential places to open an office after graduation

- Technology places to potentially work after graduating.

There are several squares that could be used as center locations to find places around:

Kendal Square near MIT

Harvard Square near Harvard and Lesley Universities

Central Square in the middle of Harvard, Lesley and MIT